

Marion Harland.

A very interesting feature of the Sunday edition of THE CHICAGO RECORD-HERALD and one looked for by every woman reader of that paper is the page devoted to Marion Harland. Under the heading "The Housewife's Assistant," queries and answers appear on a variety of which conscientious housewives are discussing. Wholesome advice is given about the care of children and how to make a home beautiful and attractive.

On the same page are also to be found some of Marion Harland's famous recipes. She is considered an authority on this subject, many people making it a practice to preserve her recipes whenever they are published.

A word about Marion Harland herself. Thousands of people who have read her articles are anxious of knowing more about her. Her real name is Mary Virginia Terhune. She was born in Amelia County, Virginia, Dec. 21, 1830; received a good education; began to write for the press at 14, and in 1856 married Rev. Eliazer Payson Terhune. Besides writing for the press, she is the author of a large number of books. She has a summer home called Susanbrook at Pompton, N. J., but at present is living in New York City.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by Webb Bros.

A Jolliest Inquiry.

A well-known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is no danger in giving it, and for coughs colds and croup it is surpassed. For sale by Webb Bros.
